

Part-Time Position Opening: Program Assistant

Position Overview

The Program Assistant plays a key role in implementing programs and initiatives at If You Can Just Save One (Just One). This position requires a caring, reliable adult with a passion for youth development and the ability to foster safe, welcoming, and encouraging spaces for youth and families. Program Assistant work hands-on with youth to build trusting relationships, serve as positive role models, and provide a listening ear while supporting youth as they learn, grow, and thrive outside of school hours. Through daily engagement, the Program Assistant helps create positive impacts in the lives of youth and the broader community.

About Just One

Mission

Just One provides free, high-quality programs, system navigation, and resources that help Hillyard youth and families build power, advocate for themselves, and create community change.

Vision

Just One envisions a Hillyard community where all youth and families have the power and resources to advocate for themselves and shape the community's future.

About Our Community:

Just One provides high-quality, low-barrier activities, programs, and resources to families in the NorthEast Spokane and Hillyard, one of the most underserved communities in Washington state. We work with youth facing significant challenges, including high ACE (Adverse Childhood Experience) scores, involvement in school disciplinary systems, IEPs (Individual Education Plans), court involvement, and food insecurity.

About Our Programs:

Our programs help build power with and increase access for individuals, families, and the NorthEast neighboring communities. We build power with youth and families by teaching them to navigate systems, advocate for themselves, and participate in civic life. We build access for youth and families by providing high-quality, free programming and resources they wouldn't otherwise have.

How to Apply

Please send your resume or a brief job history, and up to a one-page cover letter to ops@justonespokane.org.

In your cover letter, please share:

- What does “at-risk” mean to you?
- What does building power and access look like?
- Please explain how you would respond to one or both of the following scenarios:
 - During program time, a youth makes an inappropriate comment out loud. A few nearby youth laugh, while others appear offended or uncomfortable. The energy in the room shifts, the behavior begins to spread, and the activity becomes disrupted as more youth focus on the comment instead of the activity.

- Thirty minutes before after-school programming ends, parents begin arriving for pick-up visibly upset. Staff are met with two different versions of what happened, heightened emotions, and angry parents demanding answers while youth are still present and the program is actively running.

We encourage people with a wide range of lived experience, professional backgrounds, and skill levels to apply. If you are passionate about youth, community, and building power with families and do not meet every qualification listed we still welcome your application.

Applications will be received on a rolling basis until the position is filled and the expected start date is February 23, 2026.
